

Oberhuber Jenal

Attorneys at Law

Privacy Notice Clients

Oberhuber Jenal

Attorneys at Law

Data Collection in the Implementation and Processing of our Services and Tasks.

1 Preamble

Oberhuber Jenal Attorneys at Law (hereinafter "Company") processes information and personal data that refers to you (hereinafter "Data Subject").

Basically, such information is processed by the Company in the context of existing or intended business relations, including the use of a website.

The Company seeks the best possible protection of your personal data. Controller within the meaning of the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation GDPR (hereinafter "GDPR") is Oberhuber Jenal Attorneys at Law, Wuhrstrasse 14, LI-9490 Vaduz.

2 Data Processing Purposes

We process personal data from our clients for the following purposes:

- activities pursuant to the Lawyers Act, the Persons and Company Act and the Civil Code in particular:
- legal services;
- legal representation against authorities and in court proceedings;
- correspondence;
- compliance with legal requirements in connection with the Lawyers Act, the Persons and Company Act, and the Civil Code.

Oberhuber Jenal

Attorneys at Law

3 Data Categories

In our data directories, the following data categories are directly processed in accordance with Art. 9 GDPR to perform our activities within the scope of purposes listed under 2:

Data Category	Data Description	Data Recipient
Client and address data	Name, company, date of birth, home and/or business address, nationality, occupation, telephone number, email address	e.g. courts and authorities, external service providers (e.g. banks, asset managers, auditors), opponents
Identification Data	Identification documents, e.g. passport or identity card copies, utility bills, tax numbers, death certificates; authentication data, e.g. signature samples	e.g. courts and authorities, external service providers (e.g. banks, asset managers, auditors), opponents
Mandate information	e.g. corporate documents, personal facts, contracts and other legal documentation, bank documents, correspondence, due diligence documents, tax data, resolutions by bodies	Liechtenstein authorities and courts
Correspondence	Client orders, general correspondence	e.g. courts and authorities, external service providers (e.g. banks, asset managers, auditors), opponents
Data of legal entities	Articles of incorporation, by-laws, certificates, mandate agreements, signatory powers	e.g. courts and authorities, external service providers (e.g. banks, asset managers, auditors), opponents
Tax Data	FATCA-, AIA-, LDF information	e.g. courts and authorities, external service providers (e.g. banks, asset managers, auditors), opponents

4 Access to and Forwarding of Data

Personal data of clients are processed by us exclusively for the fulfilment of our contractual, statutory and supervisory duties for the purposes specified under 2.

For this purpose, the following parties may receive personal data:

- Legal counterparties, authorities and courts
- external service providers and parties (such as banks, asset managers, insurance Company, lawyers, auditors, suppliers, dealers, transport Company, subcontractors or other cooperation partners; associations, public-interest institutions); the forwarding of data to us by third party service providers only takes place with the express consent of the client.

If we have to fulfil legal or supervisory requirements, the following parties in particular may receive personal data:

- official bodies and public authorities (e.g. supervisory authorities, courts);
- public prosecutor's office, police, tax authorities

5 Data Origin

The data is collected directly (e.g. in meetings or correspondence with clients; internal background and due diligence checks) and in part by third-party service providers (such as banks, asset managers, auditors).

6 Data Retention Period

Personal data will be processed and stored during the given mandate, unless there are special shorter deletion periods. After termination of the mandate these data will be stored for at least 10 years due to statutory provisions (Persons and Company Act, Lawyers Act, Civil Code). Longer storage of data occurs exclusively on the basis of statutory or contractual storage requirements or for evidence purposes with regard to time-barring laws.

7 Automated Decision-Making (Art. 22 GDPR)

There is no automated evaluation of your data. Should such procedures be used in individual cases, we inform our clients to the extent required by law.

8 Your Rights

Right to Information

You have the right to request information about your personal data that is stored by the Company. A request for information, together with proof of identity, must be sent in writing to the Controller.

Upon receipt of your request for information, you will be informed within the statutory period of 30 days if the company follows your request. The information may be refused, restricted or postponed to the extent required by law or due to the prevailing interest of a third party or the company the request is addressed to.

The request for information may be combined with a request for rectification or erasure of data.

Right to Rectification or Erasure

You have the right to request, in writing and free of charge, the rectification or erasure of your personal data, insofar as these are incorrect or stored or processed without good reason. A reasoned request for rectification or erasure must be sent to the Controller, accompanied by a proof of identity.

Your request for rectification or erasure will be processed upon receipt within a reasonable time. Thereafter, the completion of your request for rectification or erasure will be confirmed to you.

Oberhuber Jenal

Attorneys at Law

Erasure may be prevented by legal regulations. In such a case, the Company will process your personal data only to the extent necessary to comply with the statutory requirements.

Right of Objection or Cancellation

You have the right to object in writing, in whole or in part, to the processing of your personal data or to cancel your consent to the processing of such data. The objection or cancellation must be addressed in writing to the Controller.

The receipt of your objection or cancellation will be confirmed to you and thereafter the concerned data will be deleted.

To comply with an objection or cancellation may be contrary to statutory regulations. In such a case, the Company will process your personal data only to the extent necessary to comply with the statutory requirements.

Right to Restriction

You have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data with regard to the transmission of such data to third parties. An application for restriction must be sent in writing to the Controller accompanied by proof of identity.

The receipt of your application for restriction will be confirmed and your application will be completed within a reasonable time.

Such restriction may conflict with legal regulations. In such a case, the Company will only transmit your personal data to third parties to the extent necessary to comply with the statutory requirements.

Right to Complaint

You have the right to file a complaint with the competent Liechtenstein supervisory authority. You may also contact another supervisory authority of an EU or EEA Member State, for example at your place of residence or work or at the place of the alleged infringement.

Oberhuber Jenal

Attorneys at Law

The contact details of the Data Protection Authority in Liechtenstein are as follows:

Liechtenstein Data Protection Authority
Städtle 38
P. O. Box 684
LI-9490 Vaduz
T +423 236 60 90
info.dss@llv.li

9 Contact

For questions regarding data protection and data processing, please contact the Controller in writing. You can contact the Controller as follows:

Oberhuber Jenal
Rechtsanwälte AG
Wuhrstrasse 14
LI-9490 Vaduz
T +423 237 70 80
info@oberhuberjenal.li